Local Draft Board Classifies 1H Group

The local draft board is busy classifying all registrants over 28 into a newly created class, 1H.

According to Mrs. Isabelle Flynn, clerk of Draft Board No. 103, about 176 men registered at the local board are over this age. Thirty of these have taken their examinations, were classified as 1A, and were ready to go into the army.

The sixteenth draft call of five men was answered, Wednesday. The seventeenth call will take 37 men out of the local area, October 16.

The name of Sylvio Nieri, South San Francisco, has been sent to draft headquarters in Washington for acceptance as chairman of the local employment committee. The duty of the committee, which as yet has not been chosen by Nieri, is to help released draftees to recover their old jobs or to find new ones.

Mayor Accepts Pageant Invitation

Mayor John J. Fahey, yesterday, acepted an invitation extended by Mayor Angelo Rossi, San Francisco, to attend the nation's first major national defense pageant, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The forces of the army, navy, and marines will participate in one of the biggest shows of the men and material of national defense yet staged in the United States.

Friday at 8 p. m. a night parade will begin passing the reviewing stand in front of the San Francisco city hall.

Saturday noon, a luncheon in the Red Room of the Bohemian club at Post and Taylor streets, will be held. Sunday afternoon, the feature will be a football game between St. Mary's and Moffett field, at 2:15 at Kezar stadium.

The Friday night parade will be led by General DeWitt and Governor Culbert L. Olson, followed by 15,000 troops with equipment, sailors, marines, Red Cross, state guard, ninety-first division, American Legion, and so forth.

The pageant is sponsored by the San Francisco Junior Chamber of Commerce.

NEWSPAPER WEEK!

With the natural modesty of those more used to giving than receiving publicity, the newspapers of the nation pause this week to point with pride—at themselves!

The announcement of Newspaper Week, October 1 to 8, comes as something of a shock to the more hardened men of the profession. Accustomed to a year crowded with official and unofficial fire, health, and apple weeks, the men of the copy desk and editorial beats find the gripes of their opponents easier to take than the accolades of the Newspaper Week orators.

And yet the American press can, even with modesty, pose for a full-length portrait. Despite the clashing passions of war and politics, the American press remains, by and large, free. Its pages are still dedicated to truth. It still gives the American people the best information and most complete news coverage available.

In its advertising, as in its news columns, the newspaper remains a valuable source of information. The reality of this value has been proven over the years by such constant newspaper advertisers as the multiple-unit retail stores. Using newspaper advertising primarily, the retail systems of the nation have amply demonstrated that telling means selling, provided the telling is done in the newspapers.

The fact is that competitive prices, the backbone of America's mass retail systems, have little value when the prices aren't known. The means of making prices known has been found in the American press. Thus, through the acid tests of time and competition, newspaper advertising bears the seal of public service, a service both to advertiser and reader.

Essentially, American newspapers have only one purpose—to be of service to the individual, the state, and the nation. If its news columns have provided full and accurate information, if its advertising columns have helped to put more goods into the hands of more people at a lower cost, then the press of America has done its job.

TANFORAN TO OPEN '41 SEASON TOMORROW

With thoroughbreds streaming in from all over the country, Tanforan ushers in the fall racing season in the San Francisco sector tomorrow. For forty-one days, some of America's best known horses will thunder over the racing strip which brought back the sport of kings to California.

Dressed up with a new paint job, the infield beautified with thousands of blooms, the barns gleaming green and silver, Tanforan is on the threshhold of its biggest season.

Eleven hundred thoroughbreds will campaign at the meeting. Among the better known horses are Kayak II, No Competition, Mioland, Porter's Cap, Chiquita Mia, Sweepida, Meissen, Grasshopper II, Royal Crusader, Wedding Call, Gallant Duke, Time Alone, Devil's Crag, Yankee Dandy, Lassator, Step By and others.

James F. Gallagher serves as presiding steward, with Floyd McKenney as associate steward, and Edwin J. Brown as the steward representing the California Horse Racing Board. John Maluvius will be the racing secretary, and Clay Puett, inventor of the Puett Electric Gate, will make his California debut as the starter.

The Photochart camera also makes its Northern California de-

How NOT To Have Fires At Your Home

It's a reminder to guard your safety!

Fire Prevention week will be observed from Sunday to the following Saturday, October 5 to 11.

Daly City's fire chief, A. P. Chesney has compiled a list of "don'ts" to remember, if you wish to keep the tragedy of fire from your home and family.

1. DON'T accumulate a lot of cartons, newspapers, and other rubbish in your basement or garage.
2. DON'T stuff rags, newspapers, and other inflammable material in any corner behind your heaters or chimney.
3. DON'T store any explosive in your basement such as benzine, kerosine, or gasoline. (Remember that one gallon of confined gasoline has the same explosive power as 38 pounds of dynamite.)
4. DON'T use any inflammable liquid to clean clothes with unless it is a compound with the National Board of Underwriters' label on the bottle or can; and keep it away from any open flame.
5. DON'T forget where your

FINISH PREPARATIONS FOR ANNUAL FESTIVAL

It's beginning to look like a circus in the schoolyard of Our Lady of Perpetual Help church! Enthusiastic workers are bringing to completion their preparations for the annual Fall Festival and Bazaar, to be given by the church Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.

Fifteen booths have been erected under the direction of the carpenters, Pete Kelly and Ernie Cuneo. They have been decorated attractively by Mrs. Jennie Johnson. Colorful lighting effects have been arranged by the electricians, Leonard Muller, Frank Coughlin, and Fred Bricker.

In case any of you forget that the bazaar is going on, Tom Tallon and Clarence Rengstorff plan to have a loud and merry parade each night through Daly City to impress upon the citizenry that the place to be Friday, Saturday, and Sunday is at the carnival.

Delicious home-cooked dinners will be served, Saturday and Sunday from 5 to 7 p. m.

According to those in charge of the affair, "Hundreds of families are planning to give mother a two-day vacation from cooking and enjoy these dinners."

The culinary artist responsible for the repast will be Mrs. A. Kohmann, head of the dinner committee.

Plenty of free entertainment has been provided for the three days of the carnival. Friday, the open air dance will begin at 8 p. m. Saturday at the same time a large accordion band will perform.

The Daly City band will start the day, Sunday, with a recital at 2 p. m. Under the direction of George Brenner, this popular and experienced musical outfit will play the following program:

"The Star-Spangled Banner."

March, "Gateway to the Peninsula"—Daly City's official march, composed by Brenner.

"Sunnyland Waltzes"—Rosner.

"Grand Selection — Gems of Ireland"—Barnard.

"Stout Hearted Men"—Romberg.

"Song of Love"—Schubert.

Overture, "Scarlet Dragon"—Hanneman.

March, "Anchors Aweigh" — Zimmerman.

March, "Old Glory Triumphant"—Duble.

This program will be followed by a program of dancing by Miss Rose's "Dancing Kiddies." In the evening Bud DeMyers and his "Lucky Devil Tumblers" will hold forth beginning at 8 p. m.

In addition to these definitely scheduled events plans call for various other acts, including an outstanding Hawaiian trio, a champion tap-dancer, and others.

Transfer Bolger To Desk Day Shift

William P. Bolger, who has been on the night desk at the Daly City police department for eight and a half years, was transferred to the day shift, last week.

He takes the place of Edward Ford, veteran desk man on the force, who died suddenly several weeks ago in Oregon.

Joseph Patton, who alternated with Bolger on the night desk, is taking over Bolger's duties at night.

Fire Box Jams, Calls All Companies

When fire broke out in an old shack at West Moltke street and Station avenue, Monday night, the person turning in the alarm was a bit too vigorous and the fire box jammed.

The fire whistle blasted through the alarm, 6-2-2, ten times before stopping. This brought all six Daly City fire companies to the scene of the fire, which was quickly extinguished by Companies Nos. 6, 1, and 3. Fire Chief A. P. Chesney sent the others home.

James G. Reardon, police chief, cited a number of motorists for getting in the way of the fire engines and official cars.

"All motorists who are guilty of not heeding the sirens when our fire department is going to a fire will be treated in the same way," he said. "Interference with the efficiency of the fire department must be stopped."

F. B. I. Confers With Police Officers

Practical ways of combatting sabotage and espionage and internal security matters—not just theories—was the keynote of the Quarterly Conference between local law enforcement agencies and the FBI, held last Wednesday at the city hall, Palo Alto.

Named by President Franklin D. Roosevelt more than two years ago to coordinate all national defense and internal security investigations, the FBI immediately launched a nation-wide Law Enforcement Officers Mobilization Plan. This get-together between FBI agents and local police officers and sheriffs was a part of this nation wide increasingly successful program.

The conference was varied and distinguished by the number of men present who took an actual part in the discussions. Local officers explained their problems and the various ways discovered to successfully meet them. Agents of the FBI presented the over-all situation throughout Northern California, as well as the National picture. Practical cases were assigned during the meeting to of-

For Daly City citizens who wish to examine the financial statement of their city, County Auditor C. E. Piatt has released to the press a complete itemized account of all cash receipts, budget encumbrances and balances, and fund activities for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1941.

The entire statement may be found elsewhere in this issue of the Daly City Record.

Lions Have Grand Time At Picnic

It was a great time, and the Lions had it!

Members of the Daly City-Colma Lions club and their wives and friends, totalling ninety altogether, trooped to San Mateo Memorial park, Sunday morning, for a picnic.

They started from Daly City in a caravan of fifteen cars, at 9:30 a. m., paraded through Daly City and Colma, and then went off for a good time.

In one of the events, the tug o' war, the ladies challenged the men. And the fair sex proved they were stronger, or at least smarter, than their muscled opponents. The men were blindfolded and the ladies tied their end of the rope around a tree. You can imagine the rest.

There were races for the kids, a treasure hunt, and a bingo

To join the classes one must register at the high school, Tuesday or Thursday evening, when the classes are in session.

Other courses offered are as follows: English for the Foreign-born, taught by Vernon Jack Chapman; bookkeeping, mimeographing, and machine calculation, taught by Miss Marjorie Robinson; typing and stenography, taught by Miss A. Dorothy Smith.

Guard President

At President Roosevelt's party for Washington newspaper reporters, guests who had wandered to the south lawn had a queer sensation when they tried to get back into the Mansion and found the doors locked. Peering through the windows they saw that the brightly lighted Red room, the Blue room and the Green room had been suddenly emptied. Before long, a secret service aide came to explain. The rooms had been cleared to allow President Roosevelt to pass through to his private elevator. Just part of closer guarding of the President since the war has become worse.

County News In Review

Drunken Driving

The Department of Motor Vehicles revealed today that 296 persons living in San Mateo county lost their driving licenses by suspension, revocation, cancellation or probationary orders during the first eight months of 1941.

Of this number 151 were involved in drunken driving cases. The total was made up of the following: suspensions 234; revocations and cancellations, 27; probationary licenses 35.

For the entire state a total of 22,935 persons lost their licenses on various offenses and for various periods during the same months.

Illustrating the seriousness of the drunken driving situation, Paul Mason, chief of the Division of Drivers Licenses, said 13,100 or approximately 60 per cent of all cancellations and suspensions were on charges of driving while intoxicated.

Defense Industry

A committee of five has been authorized by members of San Francisco Peninsula, Inc. to make a survey designed to bring defense industry into San Mateo county in the near future. This was done at a meeting of the organization in the Burlingame Chamber of Commerce headquarters, Friday night.

President T. J. Hallinan predicted that the industrial defense program in this country will continue for five years and urged that San Mateo county make every effort to share in that program.

The industries, however, must be acceptable to the high type of residential areas found in this county.

Priority Ratings

Recent action of the Office of Production Management in assuring San Mateo county's residential building industry favorable priority ratings has brightened the outlook of the industry in this area, a meeting of the Peninsula Building Trades Employers' association learned last week.

Any private concern, the meeting was told, could build residences that cost more than $6000 but could not be assured the same priority schedule as will be granted to the buildings constructed under the $6,000 limit.

While the Peninsula builders have been assured favorable priorities on available materials, the industry still is in the dark as to the extent of the available supply, the contractors learned.

It was the consensus of the meeting, however, that promised co-operation of manufacturers would result in a rationing of materials in such a manner that the industry would soon be able to resume a normal production schedule. Heaviest scarcity, at present, is in metals.

RETAILERS AND DEFENSE

One noon, I went to buy a stamp at the exhibition which opened "Retailers For Defense Week." This effort on the part of retailers to do a real job for defense is a very wise move. While it may curtail some of the buying at the present time, it will put money in people's pockets for future use. We shall need that money to keep us from too great a business slump during the transition from defense work to normal activities.

It seems to me that in everything we do today we should have an eye to our present needs, but at the same time think far enough ahead to guard against some of the difficulties we have undergone in the past.

For instance, if the production of automobiles is going to be drastically curtailed in order that industry may take a bigger share in defense work, why not plan to put money, which in ordinary times we might set aside for a new automobile, into Defense Stamps, and call those stamps: "Our Automobile Fund" for the future?

We may have to use our old car a bit longer than we would ordinarily think wise, or even economically sound, but at least we can arrange our own finances so that they are helpful to the government at present and useful to us when the day comes for buying that new car.

WOMEN AND BUSINESS

Women are as interested in all these business questions as men. During the second week of October which will be observed as Business and Professional Women's week throughout the nation, there will be special emphasis on the plans laid by which women, many of whom are influential in business and professional groups, can aid the defense program.

I wish they would all think not only of the problems which come before them in business, but also of the many local problems which in the end are going to be very vital in national defense. A particularly vital problem is participation of volunteers in work where their efforts will be valuable.

I am counting on these important women's organizations to make a valuable contribution in the working out of the volunteer services. They must be rendered on a very large scale if this country is ever to be

Jeff Puts Up Stiff Battle

Running up against a team that had already played two games, the Jefferson Union High School Indians opened their football season, Friday, by dropping a game to Tamalpais, 13-0.

Both touchdowns were manufactured in the first half. When the local gridders began to get the feel of the game in the second half they couldn't be scored on.

The first score came as the result of a punt fumbled by the Indian safety man, the first time Tamalpais kicked. It was recovered by Tamalpais on Jeff's 18-yard line. An end run brought the ball to within four yards of the last stripe, and three bucks into the line put it over.

In the second quarter the winners connected with a long pass from the Indians' 45 to 20 yard marker. Two line bucks and an off-tackle smash added up to another touchdown, and the scoring was over for the day.

Coach John Matthews was pleased with the showing of his boys, though they went down to defeat. "The Tamalpais team was a much weightier outfit than ours, and I think we did well to hold them to two scores," he said.

Star of the game for the local eleven was Jack Faulk, tackle, who was in the game until the last play of the afternoon. He played himself completely out and left the field exhausted but covered with praise for his fine showing.

"All the boys did very well," said Matthews, "especially on defense.'

The Indians, according to the coach, made some slips due to their lack of seasoning, but look as if they will turn into a good ball club before the season is out.

Friday, they will meet their arch-rival, Balboa. They have been pointing for this game and are sure to give everything they have to win.

Greer Garson Stars in Daly City Theatre Attraction

Inspired by the life of Mrs. Edna Gladney of Fort Worth, founder of the Texas Children's Home and Aid Society, who has devoted thirty years to child welfare and has found happy homes for more than 2,000 babies, "Blossoms in the Dust," starring Greer Garson and Walter Pidgeon, opens tomorrow at the Daly City theatre for an engagement of three days.

Filmed in Technicolor, the picture reveals for the first time the full beauty of the red-headed, green-eyed Irish actress who rose to stardom overnight with her memorable performance of "Mrs. Chips" in "Goodbye, Mr. Chips." Now, as Mrs. Gladney, she has been given another tender, warmly human role of equal brilliance.

One of the most dramatic and heart-touching stories ever brought to the screen, the picture opens in the gay, colorful Gibson Girl period of 1906, when lovely Edna Kahley meets, falls in love with and marries Sam Gladney, played by Pidgeon. Mrs. Gladney becomes interested in child welfare when she observes the difficulties women workers in her husband's flour mill have in caring for their children.

Simply and quietly Mrs. Gladney goes about her chosen work of helping babies and assuring reforms in adoption laws. When Sam Gladney suffers financial reverses and loses the mills they move to Fort Worth, where Mrs. Gladney rings every doorbell in Texas in order to secure funds to start a new home. The screen has never brought a more beautiful romantic story to the screen than this one of a woman who fell in love with 2,000 babies.

Companion feature will be "Hit the Road," with Gladys George, Billy Hallop and Barton MacLane.

Price Goes Up Today On Alcoholic Beverages

Today the price of alcoholic beverages will be raised to meet the new federal tax, which becomes effective at this time, Commissioner George R. Reilly, member of the State Board of Equalization for this district, reminded dealers and consumers.

So that there will be no confusion in applying the new tax in California and to permit complying as well with the state fair trade act for beverages, Commissioner Reilly revealed the board adopted a resolution making price changes effective in the state on the same day the new tax is applied.

Ordinarily, he explained, thirty days are required for posting of prices before they become effective.

Plan Fair To Raise Funds

The prospect of a new church to take the place of Holy Angels church in Colma is growing brighter, according to Father James Sorasio.

Latest plans to raise funds for the church include a fair and entertainment to be held in Colombo hall, October 25, at 8 p. m.

The entertainment will be under the direction of Miss Mary Belli. Committees are hard at work to make the affair a success.

The present church was built about 1868. It served as a mission church until 1916, when it became a parish church.

"A new church is really needed," said Father Sorasio. "The population is growing and the parishioners hope to have the new church built soon."

Friday at 8:30 p. m. a whist party will be given in Holy Angels' Parish hall for the benefit of the Catholic Mission church of Rockaway beach. The public is invited.

Also treated was G. Glingston, 60, of San Francisco, whose car was crowded off Skyline boulevard and dropped one hundred feet, Sunday. He suffered a dislocated hip.

Reno Gosmi, 27, of San Francisco, was kicked in the head by a horse on Skyline boulevard, Sunday, and was taken to Junipero Serra hospital for treatment.

For thrilling action, daring horsemanship, sustained interest and a story which conceals a surprising climax until the very end of the picture, it would be hard to beat "The Gunman from Bodie," Monogram's "Rough Riders' drama which will be shown at the children's matinee, Saturday, by the Daly City theatre.

Buck Jones, Tim McCoy and Raymond Hatton will be seen in featured roles.

The story, laid in the cattle country of the Southwest, is an adventurous tale of the pursuit of a band of stock thieves by undercover U. S. Marshals. Local law enforcement officers have joined forces with the outlaws, and the resulting reign of terror brings federal detectives to the scene. How they mask their movements from the bandits, and how they achieve results after apparently working at cross purposes, makes a story that is filled with interest.

The cast is remarkable for its excellence. Buck Jones and Tim McCoy have starred separately in many Western pictures, and their combination in this series is little less than a master stroke on the part of Producer Scott R. Dunlap.

Director Spencer Bennett has maintained the action at a uniform pace, and at no point is there any letdown in the action. "The Gunman from Bodie" is a picture that "moves," as the saying is, and it is one that is filled with interest and excitement.

This thrilling western will be seen only at the Saturday matinee, according to the management.

ETHEL WATERS

Mamba's Daughters To Open At Geary

The Ethel Waters appearances as the star of "Mamba's Daughters" at the Geary theatre, San Francisco, for a limited engagement, starting Monday, October 6, brings up an exceptional bit of information. Within the past few years it has become a fairly common practice for admirers of a screen or radio performer to form a fan club.

The legitimate theatre has been peculiarly free of such collective demonstrations of affection in the past, but the current season has seen a spontaneous outburst of enthusiasm that may mark the first fan organization of its kind in the country, a group which might well be entitled the "We Think Ethel Waters Is Magnificent Club," or the "Associated Admirers of Herculean Hagar," or, perhaps, "The Society for the Extermination of Gilly Bluton."

Charter members of the group would be that forthright band of playgoers, as well as performers, who pooled personal finances to take a large display advertisement, shortly after "Mamba's Daughters" opened in New York. The advertisement read:

"The undersigned feel that Ethel Waters' superb performance in "Mamba's Daughters" at the Empire is a profound emotional experience which any playgoer would be the poorer for missing. It seems that such a magnificent example of great acting, simple, deeply felt, moving on a plane of complete reality that we are glad to pay for the privilege of saying so." Attached were the signatures of Judith Anderson, Tallulah Bankhead, Norman Bel Geddes, Cass Canfield, John Emery, Oscar Hammerstein, Paul Kellogg, Edwin Knopf, Ben H. Lehman, Fania Marinoff, Aline MacMahon, Burgess Meredith, Stanley Reinhardt and Carl Van Vechten.

Alexander Woollcott soon joined the club, writing to Miss Waters: "Ethel Waters is an actress of such scope and stature as could use a 'Medea.' In the meantime we must be thankful to 'Mamba's Daughters' for the chance it gives us to see such a performance as no playgoer can ever forget."

The honorary president in this event would be "that wonderful woman," known to the general public as Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, who, in company with Helen Hayes, went back stage, after a performance, to congratulate Miss Waters, and who subsequently declared in her column "My Day," that Ethel Waters gave her "an unforgettable evening"; achieved "an extraordinary artistic success."

TRAFFIC COURT

Judge Fines Man For Reckless Driving

Judge Wade H. Clay gave C. D. Kazarinoff, Menlo Park, one month to pay $25, at Friday's court session. Kazarinoff was fined for reckless driving and for being without a license.

John Abrams, Belmont, was fined $20 for travelling 75 miles an hour in a 25 mile zone.

Speeding 60 miles an hour in a 25 mile zone cost Cressida Flynn Mielke $10. Paying $5 for speeding were Jack DeVilliers Butheaud, 172 Shakespeare street; William Murphy, San Francisco; Harry Bigelow, San Francisco, and Frank Joseph Woods, San Francisco.

For being drunk in a public place Paul F. Carroll and John Henry Mumford each forfeited their $5 bail. They did not appear in court.

Going through a stop signal and not having a driver's license meant that Harold Jones, San Francisco, paid $2.50. One dollar fines were paid by the following for disregarding signals: Philip Sidney Bortz, San Francisco, and Albert Libbecht, San Francisco.

Gene Hampton, Los Angeles, was driving around without a muffler and making considerable noise, so he was fined $1.00 for his mistake.

(EDITOR'S NOTE—

Attaining the status of "Newspaper Classic" is often a matter of weeks, months—even years. Sometimes, however, a piece written for the press becomes a classic literally, "overnight." That, apparently, is the case with an editorial written by Miss Hazel Parker of the Louisville Kentucky Courier-Journal, a graduate of Berea college, who attended the Pulitzer school of journalism at Columbia university a year before joining the staff of the Kentucky daily.

As a matter of fact, Miss Parker's Newspaper Classic wasn't intended to be an editorial. Members of the C-J staff are encouraged to write pieces for the "opposite editorial page" and Miss Parker wrote one, which, she hoped, would land there. But when Bryan Collier, associate editor, saw it, he had a different idea. He took off her by-line and ran her essay as the lead editorial in that day's issue, thus "putting the full force of the Courier-Journal as an institution behind it."

The reaction to it was immediate. That day members of the Courier-Journal staff were repeatedly asked "Who wrote the first editorial in today's C-J?" But none of them knew. The following day brought scores of letters and cards asking for reprints of the editorial.

Ten days later James S. Pope decided that it was time to give "a credit line where a credit line is due" and revealed the authorship of the piece.

The Kentucky girl's piece which has already become a Newspaper Classic is reprinted below.)

FREEDOM IS MADE OF SIMPLE STUFF

From the archives of broken peace we are bringing out old words and dusting them off for use again as shining lanterns to lead us through the darkness of another war.

Words like freedom, justice and truth—all of them hard to define, none of them used more frequently than freedom.

You cannot say what freedom is, perhaps, in a single sentence. It is not necessary to define it. It is enough to point to it.

Freedom is a man lifting a gate latch at dusk and sitting for a while on the porch, smoking his pipe, before he goes to bed.

It is the violence of an argument outside an election poll; it is the righteous anger of the pulpits.

It is the warm laughter of a girl on a park bench.

It is the rush of a train over the continent and the unafraid faces of people looking out the windows.

It is all the howdys in the world, and all the hellos.

It is Westbrook Pegler telling Roosevelt how to raise his children; it is Roosevelt letting them raise themselves.

It is Lindbergh's appeasing voice raised above a thousand hisses.

It is Dorothy Thompson asking for war; it is Gen. Hugh S. Johnson asking her to keep quiet.

It is you trying to remember the words to The Star Spangled Banner.

It is the sea breaking on wide sands somewhere and the shoulders of a mountain supporting the sky.

It is the air you fill your lungs with and the dirt that is your garden.

It is a man cursing all cops.

It is the absence of apprehension at the sound of approaching footsteps outside your closed door.

It is your hot resentment of intrigue, the tilt of your chin and the tightening of your lips sometimes.

It is all the things you do and want to keep on doing.

It is all the things you feel and cannot help feeling.

Freedom—it is you.

Letter To The Editor

Gentlemen:

On behalf of the Board of Directors of the San Mateo County Fiesta, I wish to take this opportunity to express my appreciation for your splendid cooperation in advertising our Fiesta. We feel that in no small measure its success was due to the widespread publicity given it.

At this time, I should be grateful if you would publicly acknowledge my thanks in your paper to all citizens of San Mateo County who patronized our Fiesta, as well as to those clubs and individuals who exhibited in it.

Regardless of the amount of time and effort spent in its preparation, it can be called successful only insofar as it is shared with all the people of the county, for whom it is produced. Encouraged by the growing interest in the Fiesta as evidenced by the increased attendance this year, the Board of Directors wish to thank the people again, sincerely, and hope that in the future years the Fiesta will prove just as attractive as it was this year.

Sincerely,
George Lagomarsino,
President San Mateo County Fair Association.

game, which, according to President Dale Hovey "made a nice little profit."

The fun went on all day, and there were still Lions roasting the last of the weiners when the park was closed at night.

Barbecued steaks, Spanish beans, and beer was the sustenance that supported the spirits of the celebrants.

Bartender was Dr. William J. Lantheaume. Head barbecuer was Dr. J. C. McGovern.

The softball game ended in a tie at 100-100, or some such magnificent score.

Mrs. R .C. MacArthur came out very well in the poker game played in the afternoon, according to Hovey.

In charge of the bingo game were John Ferrarri, R. L. Crane jr., and Bert Meritt. Mel Battye and Dr. Herbert Grieb were in charge of the children's races and treasure hunt.

Committee which made arrangements for the picnic included Hugh Smith jr., Hovey, Dr. McGovern, Crane, and Larry Comer. Comer was in charge of transportation and led the caravan to the park.

Carefully considered were ways to protect the innocent from false claims and accusations. It was agreed that the task of protecting loyal Americans from unfounded rumors was every bit as important as seeking out the disloyal men and women who seek to strangle the growing strength of the United States.

N. J. L. Among the prominent law enforcement officers attending was Daly City Chief of Police James G. Reardon. All police chiefs, inspectors, sheriffs and deputies from San Mateo and Santa Clara counties attended the meeting.

To Open Salvage Bureau Tomorrow

"Discarded by you — treasured by others!"

This is the motto of the St. Vincent de Paul society of San Mateo county, which will open their salvage bureau at 6714 Mission street, tomorrow.

Toys, clothes, furniture, and other castoff materials will be picked up by truck and renewed for selling and distribution among the poor.

"This is not an organization for profit," say officials of the society. "All proceeds will go toward charity And they will all be used in San Mateo county. This branch of the society is independent and will work solely in our community."

List of some of the needs of the charitable organization is as follows: clothing for men, women, and children, beds, mattresses, all types of bedding, furniture, stoves, magazines, cooking utensils, bric-a-brac, dishes, toys, books, newspapers, rags, metals, any other discarded articles.

"If you have anything you feel could be used, don't let it lie idle," urge workers in the charity. "Call or write now and the truck will pick up your contribution. Phone DElaware 4363."

nearest alarm box is.

6. DON'T use old or frayed cords on any of your electrical appliances, and when purchasing new ones see that the underwriters label is on them.

7. DON'T leave matches around for the children to play with.

According to Chesney, statistics show that for children under five years old 25 per cent of all accidental fatalities are caused by fire. In one year fire takes the lives of 1,673 children under five years of age, while in the same year but 591 of those between 5 and 9 years old die in this way. When people reach the age of 20-24, the deaths from fire drop to six per cent of the total.

It is estimated that during an average week 148 persons will be fatally burned in the United States. Approximately 230,208 have met death in this way in this country since World War I.

Silver Lining

War has a silver lining for 84,000 who were on relief last winter in St. John's, Newfoundland. Its great newsprint and its wood-pulp and mine-prop industries have been revived with the closing of the Baltic. Iron, lead, and zinc mines are again operating, while enlistments in the navy, army and civilian forestry corps have also helped to reduce unemployment.

Try Tapioca Ring

By Frances Lee Barton

CHICKEN broth, milk, eggs, cheese, pepper, onion, tapioca — doesn't this combination make your mouth water?

Blend these ingredients as explained in the recipe below and you'll have a new dish for your table and a new recipe card for that part of your file where you keep your "use often" recipes.

Tapioca Ring

½ cup quick-cooking tapioca; 2 cups chicken broth, or 2 cups hot water and 2 bouillon cubes (chicken flavor); 1 cup milk; 4 egg yolks, slightly beaten; ½ cup grated American cheese; 1 tablespoon minced green pepper; 1 teaspoon minced onion; ⅛ teaspoon celery salt; 4 egg whites, stiffly beaten.

Add tapioca to chicken broth and milk in saucepan. Bring mixture quickly to a full boil over direct heat, stirring constantly. Remove from fire. Add egg yolks and mix well. Add cheese and seasonings. Fold into egg whites. Turn into well-greased ring mold. Place in pan of hot water and bake in hot oven (450° F.) 30 minutes, or until done. Let stand 2 minutes before removing from mold. Unmold and fill center with creamed chicken or mushrooms. Serves 6 to 8.

Don't Ignore Quinces

By Frances Lee Barton

YOUR jam shelf is not complete without at least a few jars of quince jam. All jams and jellies are good, but the uncommon variety is usually the one to place before guests. The older people especially will enthuse over the flavor of black currants, loganberry or quince, when more common flavors are taken as a matter of course. Now that quinces are obtainable, stock up your jam shelf.

Quince Jam

5 cups (2½ lbs.) prepared fruit; 7 cups (3 lbs.) sugar; ½ bottle fruit pectin.

To prepare fruit, peel and core about 3 pounds fully ripe quinces. Grind, using finest knife of food chopper. Add 1½ cups water and juice of 1 medium lemon. Bring to a boil, cover, and simmer 15 minutes.

Measure sugar and prepared fruit into large kettle, mix well, and bring to a full rolling boil over hottest fire. Stir constantly before and while boiling. Boil hard 1 minute. Remove from fire and stir in bottled fruit pectin. Skim; pour quickly. Paraffin hot jam at once. Makes about 11 glasses (6 fluid ounces each).

Mrs. Effie Andersen announces that sale of student body cards is being pushed these days, as Friday is the last day they can be purchased for 75 cents. After that they will be a dollar.

Music

There are more violin players at Jefferson this year than ever before, according to Oscar Busch, head of the music department. The fiddlers number twelve. They have been working hard and have already played for a PTA program. There will be an orchestra this year if the violin players continue to progress as they have been doing, said Busch. The players are as follows: Edgar Colby, John Mosman, Betty Olinger, George Percival, James Parker, Robert Pope, Mary Rossoff, Lawrence Russo, Ray Shiffman, Gene Snow, Genevieve Thomas, Vineetta Turtureci.

Campus Fashions

With these balmy days one hates to think of winter, but come on, girls, you better start looking ahead. Days of rain and cold are on their way.

Fashion experts have found ways of beating old man frost and still letting high school girls look chic and quaint.

More essential than anything else is a good tough topcoat that can be thrown over anything and still fit in with the weather man at anytime.

Beige wool fleece coats lined in bright colors or plaids are humdingers. A sturdy good-looker is the herring-bone tweed coat with detachable chamois lining. These come in brown, green, tan or aqua.

Other sturdy stand-ins for nippy days are the two-piece herring-bone suits. They come styled with bias pleats and have little leather buttons running up and down the front.

Black Cats Plan To Purchase Sweaters

The Black Cats are planning to have new sweaters—with swanky black cat emblems. This fact has been announced by President Beverly Ainsworth. Final plans for the sweaters were made at the last Tuesday evening meeting of the group.

Hostess was Lorraine Hill, 127 Templeton avenue. Refreshments were served by Patsy Benedetti. One new candidate, Dorothy Peterson, was initiated into the club.

Next meeting of the Black Cats will be held Tuesday evening, October 7, at 127 Templeton avenue, at 7:30 p. m.

Sports

The 110's and 120's, basketball mitymites at Jefferson Union high, split a doubleheader with Lincoln high, Thursday afternoon. The light-weights lost a tough one by one point, after battling through two overtime periods. The 120's evened things up by trouncing their opponents by a large score. Coaching the basketballers is Edgar Smith, who also is a mainstay in the Zoology department.

G. P. A. L.

The G. P. A. L. got a new manager last week in the person of high-sophomorette, Esther Hanel. To belong to the girls' athletic organization a girl must go out for one of the sports, such as tennis, swimming, hockey, archery, badminton, and basketball, and she must play in the games regularly and report for practises, according to Miss Hanel. The G. P. A. L. girls also take care of the concessions at football games, selling peanuts, candy, ice cream and so forth.

HOCKEY

Miss Juanita Young, who is in charge of girls' hockey classes, urges all girls who have any interest in this sport to come out for it after school. Soon the class will be playing round robins each week at a different school. They will also take part in the big sports day at Stanford, October 18. Miss Young announces that the life saving class is closed.

ARCHERY

The G. P. A. L. girls in the archery class will soon be playing for points. There will also be an archery tourney for both boys and girls. The competition is among the classes. Last year the freshman won and have an idea they can repeat this year.

RALLY

Just before the game against Tamalpais, Friday, the drum began beating in the auditorium, calling for the first football rally of the season. School songs were sung, yells were yelled, Coach John Matthews gave a talk on the prospects of the Indians, and the band played. Tillie Castro led the yells, along with Jennie Giusti, Jack Hickey, Pamela Yorkman.

Next rally will be Friday before the game with Balboa. The program will be arranged by Roy DeVincenzi.

No Blackout

Failure to display tail lights on their baby carriages during the blackout cost four women four shillings (about 80 cents) each. They were fined in magistrate's court at Walsall, Staffordshire. The arrests were made after one of the carriages was hit by an automobile.

At The District Grammar Schools

At Jefferson

Fire drills were in order this week at Jefferson grammar school. Each class had its lesson on the dangers of fires, as well as on fire prevention through carefulness. Lessons were followed by individual classroom fire drills, stressing necessity for order and speed in case of a real fire. These drills were followed by a school fire drill.

Constitution Day was commemorated at Jefferson grammar school with the annual program, reminding the students of their American heritage. The patriotic program consisted of a salute to the flag, and such songs as the "Star Spangled Banner" and "America, the Beautiful," sung by the combined classes.

Lola Casentini, seventh grade pupil, read a paper stressing the importance of the legal rights and responsibilities of Americans. She said that the Constitution, through 154 years of usefulness, has proved itself the most beneficial document ever evolved.

She concluded with the assertion that in America alone is found justice, tolerance, freedom, strength, and peace, and that the main privilege and responsibility of Americans is to protect and preserve these blessings.

Jefferson annex also observed Constitution Day, with Mario Stanghellini, Anita Ritchard, and Aldo Canepa giving talks upon its origin.

KINDERGARTEN

The little children who started in the kindergarten class at Jefferson grammar school this term are getting used to their new world, according to their teachers. Each day they are becoming more adjusted to their surroundings through their socialized activities.

FIRST GRADE

The first graders are learning to play "safely" through a "Safe Play" lesson. Its aims are to teach the children to exercise care, courtesy ,and fair play.

SECOND AND LOW THIRD GRADES

The little pupils in these grades are making out the notes in their first music books these days and learning their first songs.

SIXTH GRADE

The development and history of Czechoslovakia were considered by the sixth graders this week. They were shown a motion picture about that country as it existed before the present war.

At Crocker

ROOM 2

The pupils of Room 2 last week gave a play that told the story of the discovery of oil and how that discovery led to the use of the coal oil lamp.

ROOM 3

A trip to an ancient country of Europe, Hungary, was made via the cinema by the children of Room 3. Peasant life and customs were illustrated by the film.

ROOM 6

In connection with their social studies unit on "Air Transportation," Room 6 took a bus trip to Mills Field, Friday. A guide took the students around the field and explained its operation.

Woodrow Wilson

ROOM 12

To show a mode of primitive travel, Billy Basso, Andre Laumond, and David Fisher, made a small raft of twigs. The boys are planning to make several more models to show the progress of water transportation.

ROOM 14

How did early man keep time? That is the subject under the consideration of the pupils in Room 14. They have become acquainted with the progress made by the Egyptians and Babylonians. In the near future they expect to add to their list the different ways the Romans, Chinese, and the people of the Middle Ages told time and developed calendars and clocks.

ROOM 15

Patty Kollmann, a newcomer to Woodrow Wilson school, told last week about her visit with her family to the San Mateo Fiesta. Patty lived formerly in San Bernardino county.

TANFORAN OPENS TOMORROW

but at the meeting.

The $15,000 Marchbank Handicap at a mile and an eighth, one of California's most famous stakes, tops the increased stakes and purse program. This event at a mile and an eighth, and among its winners are Seabiscuit, money-winning champion of the world, and Indian Broom, who set the world's record of 1:47 3/5 when he captured the first running in 1936.

There are three $5000 stakes, the Lassie for 2-year-old California-bred fillies, October 11, the A. B. Spreckels Handicap for 2-year-olds Saturday and the San Francisco Handicap, November 8.

The $2500 Inaugural Handicap at six furlongs, tomorrow pops the cork on the season, bringing out a swift array of sprinters. Three other $2500 numbers, the Portola, Twin Peaks and Yerba Buena Handicaps also have been scheduled.

The minimum purse will be $1000 and Tanforan pays a $10 award to both the grooms and exercise boys for each winner.

Tanforan will house 1100 horses, and every stall at the track has been alloted. The season will mark the American debut of Meissen, the "Pride of Peru." This invader was shipped to Hollywood park, but failed to get acclimated in time for the Hollywood Gold Cup. He comes here with more press notices than any invader within recent years.

"Not So Good" -- For The Eagles

The Colma-Vista Grande Eagles' two teams in the Eagles Peninsula league fared rather less than well in their last encounters, Monday night.

The "A" team now nestles in third place in the standings, behind the San Francisco "A" and Golden Gate Yankee boys, with a record of six won and three lost. They won one out of three, Monday evening.

The "B" team is tied for sixth place with three wins and six losses. After winning the first three games of the tourney, these chaps have lost six in a row.

Pearlman of the "A" team rolled the best series, 507, for a 165 average for the night. Second was Curry, with 467, and third, Mendelson, with 466.

Best man, Monday, on the "B" outfit was Hanel, who rolled 460. Meritt achieved a 447 for second honors, and Reardon took third highest with 437.

Admit Tractor Parts

France will admit tractor engine parts into the country at reduced duties if they are to be used by farmers.

EAGLES BOWLING LEAGUE

COLUMBIA BOYS DEFEAT S. P. CLUB

Two runs in the last half of the ninth pulled the Columbia Park Boys Seniors ahead of the S. P. Club at the last minute to take the game between the two teams, Sunday, at Marchbank field. The score was 6-5.

It was the second and feature game of the doubleheader. In the first game the Daly City Juniors played to a ten-inning tie with S. F. Chronicle, 14-14.

Graber of the Columbia Park Boys pitched a good game, as did Prola of the losers, but five errors by each team marred their efforts considerably.

Dangerous man at the plate for the winners was centerfielder, Donovan, who smacked out two singles and a double. Snowden, Columbia Park Boys second baseman, hit two for four. Best average at the plate made by players of either team was that of Shea, shortstop for the S. P. Club, who connected three times in four times at bat.

Use Sink Stoppers

In dry Oklahoma sink stoppers can be part of a police officer's equipment. When Lieut- V. O. Webb and two other officers raided a home a woman emptied a dishpan of liquid into the sink. Webb quickly stoppered the sink, drained and siphoned out a quart of what he says was whisky. He was carrying the stopper in his pocket.

Cats Color-Blind

Being color-blind, cats live in a world of somber grayness.

Dangerous Firewood

Mrs. L. Marais of Cyferkuil, Western Transvaal, picked up a piece of firewood while lighting her kitchen fire and found to her horror that she had seized a deadly night adder. With great presence of mind, the housewife struck it against the floor and battered it to death.

really well prepared and fully defended.

I was very much interested to see that the "Reader's Digest" is going to be published in Portuguese as well as in Spanish. This publication has proved that it is possible to bring out in this country a magazine that is read by our South and Central American neighbors with interest, and I wish this new venture great success.

'SHAPE OF THE FUTURE'

I want to tell you about a series of articles which the magazine "Common Sense" is announcing. They plan later to have them published in book form, but in the meantime, both the subject matter and the authors make me feel that none of us will want to miss them. They deal in a general way with the "shape of the future."

The editors, in their announcement, say a few things which, if they are really carried out by the articles, mean that we shall be given something vital to think about. One statement reads:

"The crucial question for believers in democracy is whether the constructive possibilities are to be realized . . . We can not hope merely to save what we have. No Maginot Line can hold back the tide of change."

CIVILIAN VOLUNTEERS

A conference one morning with Miss Eloise Davison to talk over some of the things in connection with civilian volunteer participation in national defense. I am trying, as far as possible, to familiarize myself with the organization which now exists. I am studying its accomplishments and publications, so that when I do go to the office, I shall not find myself meeting people whose names I do not know and who are functioning in ways which I do not as yet understand.

I am very much interested in a pamphlet which has been compiled for the organizations which are dealing with the registration of volunteers. It is intended to aid in setting up volunteer registration centers. This seems to be a valuable step, but it will take some time to set them up so they function smoothly.

I like Mayor LaGuardia's idea that registering people is comparatively useless, but enrolling them to do definite things is well worth while. Obviously, it accomplishes two things at once. It gives a card catalogue of people who may be called upon at any time, and actually places people in positions where they function in their communities.

I talked also that morning with Miss Jane Seaver, who is the youth member on the Committee of Forty-Five on Volunteer Participation. She has worked out a preliminary program for youth participation.

MEN WANTED

There's more than one way that advertising brings men to work.

The most important way is when advertising is used to increase sales.

Instead of "men wanted," it says, "customers wanted."

And more customers mean more jobs in the stores and factories that keep busy by using advertising.
